the international trade in hazardous and radioactive waste to developing countries with inadequate infrastructure and lenient environmental laws has grown during recent decades and has been the target of public opposition in both developed and developing countries this book contains a comprehensive analysis of the pertinent international legislation as well as a comparative analysis of the european and the united states legislation and policies this book treats memory and understanding on two levels on the phenomenological level of experience on which a theory of dynamic conceptual semantics is built and on the neuro connectionist level which supports the capacities of concept formation remembering and understanding a neuro connectionist circuit architecture of a constructive memory is developed in which understanding and remembering are modelled in accordance with the constituent structures of a dynamic conceptual semantics consciousness emerges by circuit activation between conceptual indicators and episodic indices with the sensory motor emotional and proprioceptual areas this theory of concept formation remembering and understanding is applied to proust s la recherche du temps perdu with special attention to the author s excursions into philosophical and aesthetic issues under this perspective proust s work can be seen as an artistic exploration into our capacity of understanding whereby the unconscious the memory is exteriorized in consciousness by presenting the experienced episodes in the conceptual order of similarity and contiguity through our capacity of concept formation series a medicare is arguably canada s most valued social program as federally supported medicare enters its second half century medicare s histories brings together leading social and health historians to reflect on the origins and evolution of medicare and the missed opportunities characterizing its past and present embedding medicare in the diverse constituencies that have given it existence and meaning contributors inquire into the strengths and weaknesses of publicly insured health care and critically examine medicare s unfinished role in achieving greater health equity for all people in canada regardless of race status gender class age and ability fundamental to the stories told in medicare s histories is the essential role played by communities of activists critics health professionals first nations patients families and survivors in driving demands for health reform in identifying particular omissions and inequities exacerbated or even created by medicare and in responding to the realities of medicare for those who work in and rely on it contributors to this volume show how medicare has been shaped by politics in the broadest sense of that word identities professional organizations and social movements in canada and abroad as covid lays bare social inequities and the inadequacies of health care delivery and public health this book shows what was excluded and what was and is possible in health care in this book sarah emanuel a jewish scholar of the new testament argues that paul was not a universalist instead emanuel shows that stemming from his hellenistic jewish worldview paul understood jews as needing to maintain the law in christ and gentiles as needing to abstain from the law in christ both groups in other words needed to maintain particular ethnic difference in their christ following orientations lest they be left behind from paul s imagined end of days emanuel also argues that the way in which paul understood these groups was through ethno nationalistic and hierarchical means by ethno nationalistic she means that paul viewed the end of days as a new israel centric nation requiring particular polyethnic cultural affiliation jews for christ and gentiles for christ by hierarchical she means that paul valued jews for christ over gentiles for christ and also males over females and free persons over enslaved persons after all paul s end of days was itself israel centered i e jewish centered with the god of israel i e the jewish god at the helm finally none of these beliefs made paul exceptional in his judaism it made him average in his judaism wrestling with paul shows that scholars in a post holocaust world have often sanitized this ethnocentric exclusivism so as to make paul ahistorically good for modern jews and judaism it also shows that readers of paul have for millenia made sense of him in light of contemporaneous attitudes toward jews this exciting new interpretation of pauls letter to the romans approaches pauls most famous letter from one of the newest scholarly positions within pauline studies the radical new perspective on paul also known as paul within judaism as a point of departure the author takes pauls self designation in 11 13 as apostle to the gentiles as so determining for pauls mission that the audience of the letter is perceived to be exclusively gentile the study finds confirmation of this reading strategy in the letters construction of the interlocutor from chapter 2 onwards even in 2 17 where paul describes the interlocutor as someone who calls himself a jew it requests to perceive this person as a gentile who presents himself as a jew and not an ethnic jew if the interlocutor is perceived in this way throughout the letter the dialogue between paul and the interlocutor can be perceived as a continuous unified and developing dialogue in this way this interpretation of romans sketches out a position against a more disparate and fragmentary interpretation of romans this commentary on the gospels and acts excerpted from the fortress commentary on the bible the new testament engages readers in the work of biblical interpretation contributors from a diversity of perspectives connect historical critical analysis with sensitivity to current theological cultural and interpretive issues each chapter matthew through acts includes an introduction and commentary based on three lenses ancient context the interpretive tradition and contemporary questions and challenges the gospels and acts introduces fresh perspectives and draws students preachers and interested readers into the challenging work of interpretation covering social morbidities and mortalities of adolescents including suicide smoking high risk sexual activity eating disorders mental health problems and interpersonal violence this volume consolidates multiple theoretical perspectives what are paul s rhetorical strategies to affect the galatian believers seon yong kim shows how paul uses heavy employment of the curse theme complex appropriation of scripture and a thoroughly negative caricature of his opponents in order to agitate the mind and emotions of the galatians and thereby dissuade them from the demand of circumcision provided by publisher back cover
